INVOCATION.

Tune "Aletta."

Heavenly Father, for Thy care
Every day and everywhere,
We would thank Thee while we pray,
Grant a blessing on this day.

May the memories that come
Lift us to a higher sphere,
And inspire us, every one,
For the work that waits us here.

And when we must lay it down,
May some true and loving hand
Take the trust, and share the crown
With the blessed Sainted Band.

E. A. S.

ANNIVERSARY HYMN."HARVEST HOME."

The sons and the daughters of Zion have come
To thank the dear Father for this Sabbath Home,
For all that the years of His bounty have given,
For all in reserve for the meeting of heaven.

And in their white vestments, on each golden stair,
The sainted are coming this service to share,
Their harps strike the note of our jubilee song,
Their voices the anthem of praise will prolong.

We gather the seeds of the dew of the morn,
Of noontide, of twilight, of days that are gone,
The sower and reaper rejoicing as one,
As we bring in the sheaves to this sweet Harvest Home.

The circle must widen to compass the sphere ;
 What fields can we sow from the seed garnered here,
 For the Feast of Ingathering when each one shall come,
 With the sheaves we have gleaned for the Great Harvest Home.

E. A. S.

"I want to do real work for Christ."—Linnet.

"You need Christ, and Christ needs you to work for Him."

MEMORIAL HYMN.

Tune of Webb.

"Built upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief Corner Stone."—Eph. 2:20.

Upon the Rock of Ages
 The Walls of Zion stand,
 Built by the ancient sages
 The apostolic band.
 The royal line of martyrs
 The toilers all unknown,
 And by our Honored Fathers,
 Upon the Corner Stone.

And on this sure foundation,
 The Temple must arise,
 Whose gates shall be salvation,
 To all beneath the skies,
 The light of Heaven reflecting
 From every polished stone,
 Until the Lord descending
 His finished work shall crown.

Upon the Gold of Ophir,
And gems from land and sea,
That those we love to honor
Have offered Lord to Thee.
Some humble place be given
The tributes that we bring
On every one engraven
The signet of the King.

On every one some token
That those who serve above
In fellowship unbroken
Inspire our faith and love.

To every new endeavor
Until the work is done,
And we rejoice together
In our eternal home.

INTRODUCTION.

Every new settlement is the overflow of some place not far away. Newark and Elizabeth flowed out from Jersey City and Hackensack. Many in this vicinity went from Newark and its surroundings. That there was a church here before 1765 is evident from a deed bearing date Sept. 5, 1765, from James Parker to the Trustees of the Presbyterian Church, Levi Lewis, Daniel Cary, James King and Benjamin Clark for the consideration of 5 shillings.

A copy of this deed is as follows: Beginning at a stake on the north-east side of the road, distant ten chains and twenty-nine links in a south-easterly direction from the most southerly corner of Job C. Throckmorton's house and runs thence—

1st. North, 45 degrees east, 4 chains to a stake.

2d. South, 45 degrees east, 2 chains 50 links to a stake.

3d. South, 45 degrees west, 4 chains to a stake on the side of the road.

4th. North, 45 degrees west, 2 chains 50 links to the place of beginning.

Containing $1\frac{1}{4}$ acres, and is bounded on the S. W. by road, and on the N. W., N. E. and S. E. by lands of said James Parker.

In 1768 the Church at Succasunna joined the Church at Chester in a call to the Rev. Wm. Woodhull.

Of the above named committee the following were Elders at that date: Eliphalet Lewis, Elisha Drake, Jeremiah Rogers.

The next record of Eldership is December, 1817. They were Ebenezer Coe and Hiram Condit in the ministry of Rev. Jacob Green. September, 1818, Caleb

Jennings, Samuel King and Abraham Coe were chosen Elders.

July, 1823, Mr. Absalom Woodruff, Mr. Daniel Dalrymple and Calvin Thompson were chosen Elders. Mr. Woodruff did not serve on account of ill-health.

June 14, 1835, Silas Riggs, Daniel Cary and Wm. B. Lefevre were chosen Elders.

Jan. 29, 1837, Stephen F. Fordham, Silas Byram and Henry Concklyn were chosen Elders.

May 2, 1841, Samuel McCord, Martin S. Moore and Isaac W. Crane were chosen Elders.

Jan. 2, 1846, Mr. L. F. Corwin and Mr. Lewis Meeker were chosen Elders.

October, 1848, Mr. Geo. W. Packard and Mr. A. R. Riggs were chosen Elders.

March, 1864, Mr. Joshua G. Corwin and Mr. Josiah Meeker were chosen Elders.

May 6, 1874, Mr. Silas H. Hopkins was chosen Elder.

November 27, 1892, Mr. T. F. King, Mr. H. F. Meeker and Mr. Jonas W. Hulse were chosen Elders.

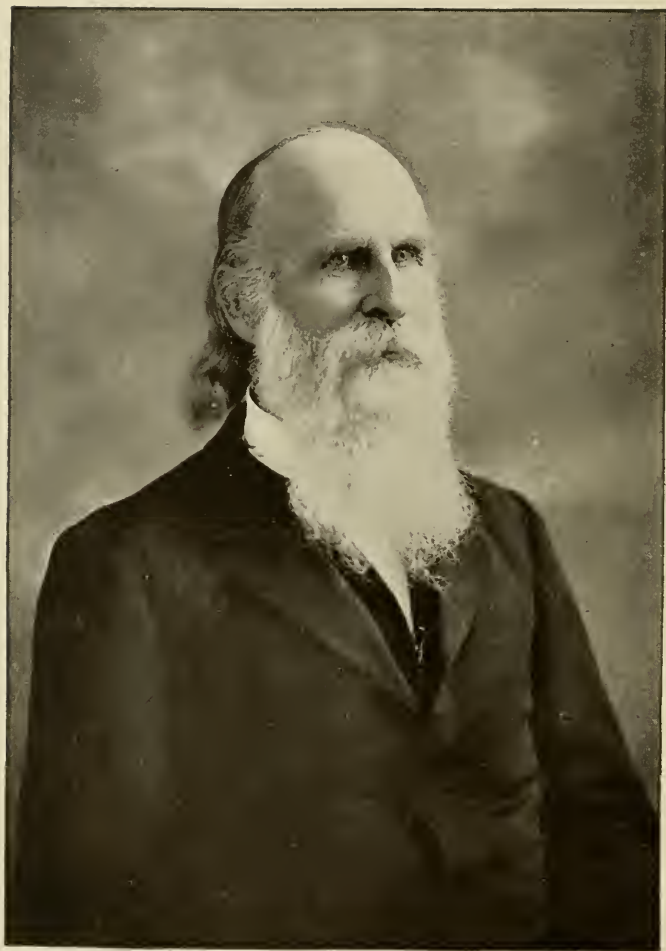

The record of these years called for a grateful review. Printed invitations were sent to all who were, or had been, associated in the history of the church, and the responses gave very many items of information and interest, a few of which may be gleaned from the afternoon and evening exercises of the anniversary.

There is also given as complete an account of all the ministers as could be gathered, and a copy of the memorials to our sainted dead who lie in God's Acre around this historic church. It has been a labor of love, and as such is submitted to a parish that has endeared itself by more than thirty years of uninterrupted fellowship and sympathy in every good word and work.

Lovingly your pastor,

E. W. STODDARD.

Succasunna, December, 1895.

HISTORICAL SERMON

*On the occasion of the One Hundred and Thirtieth-Ninth
Anniversary of the Succasunna, New Jersey
Presbyterian Church.*

BY REV. E. W. STODDARD, D. D.

Isa. 44:7-8—"Thus saith the Lord, the King of Israel, and his Redeemer, the Lord of hosts. I appointed the ancient people, and the things that are coming and shall come."

History is the record of God's dealings with men. The history of a nation or of a church is a record of what the Lord has done for them. We review one hundred and thirty-nine years of providential guidings and blessings. Commencing with the years of the honored fathers and tracing the line of mercies up to this day we render thanks unto the Lord who appointed the ancient people and the things that are coming and shall come. It is an inspiration at certain periods to look backward.

We then behold the fathers and mothers who by patient toil have waited upon the seed sowing and culture which rears the generations, who watch the heroes, who in little things lay the foundations of all future greatness. J. G. Holland says :

“We rise by the things that are under feet
By what we have mastered of good and gain ;
By the pride deposed and the passion slain,
And the vanquished ills that we hourly meet.”

No church has lived one hundred years that has not such heroic characters, both men and women, and no church will live one hundred years to come that is not rising by things that are under feet. The world, the flesh and the devil are under feet in the things that are coming and shall come. We are to-day looking backward upon the heroic characters of this church.

The Succasunna Presbyterian Church is one of the oldest in the county—about 1755—the church at Morristown being about twenty years older—1735—and that of Hanover, about thirty-five years older. The deed of this church property was executed in 1756 by James Parker, one of the West Jersey proprietors. This deed, for the sum of five shillings, conveys one acre for a church and burial ground to Levi Lewis, Daniel Cary and others. The first church building must have been erected about 1760. It is said that Levi Lewis owned a saw mill at Combs Hollow where he sawed the timber for the church. This first church building had only the floor finished and plain seats, no plastered walls and no ceiling. The swallows twittered from the rafters even while the people worshipped, nor were they disturbed by the use of the church for barrack and hospital purposes, when the larger cannon, some of which required three yoke of oxen to draw them, were ranged and sheltered outside the buildings and the munitions in the church. They were trophies from the capture of Gen. Burgoyne, near Saratoga, N. Y. When the new Centennial bell for Independence Hall, Philadelphia, was to be cast the United States government contributed one of these cannon for bell metal. When the smallpox raged in the army this church and that at Hanover were used as hospitals and this old graveyard has many nameless graves.

On January 28th, 1818, in the ministry of Rev. Jacob Green the congregation resolved to repair the meeting house, put on new covering, put in new windows and new timbers and lath and plaster. This house, which was nearly square, 35x40 feet, with its pulpit on the side, accommodated the people until January 1st, 1853, when in the ministry of Rev. Josiah Fisher the parish resolved to build a new church. The last day of service in the old church of nearly one hundred years was held on the first Sabbath of May, 1853. The Rev. Dr. Samuel Fisher, the father-in-law of Pastor Fisher, preached in the morning from the text, "Keep yourselves in the love of God." The Rev. Josiah Fisher preached in the evening. The old church was taken down and a new one erected on its site. There may be those present who helped to take down the old timbers and set them in the new house. The corner stone of the new church building was laid May 26th, 1853. A brief history of the church, the names of its officers and members at that time, certain newspapers, and a bullet found in removing the old building, bearing date in etching July 4th, 1776, and other relics were placed in the corner stone. The new house was dedicated October 11th, 1853. At this point it may be interesting to mention that the first service held in this church was the funeral of the Hon. Mahlon Dickerson, died Oct. 5th, 1853, service Oct. 8th, 1853. He had been the largest contributor to the building fund.

In August, 1872, it was resolved to enlarge the church by adding twelve feet to its length and a pulpit recess 14x7. The church was re-occupied January, 1873.

The records of the church from its organization to 1817 have been lost.

The recorded membership at that time, 1817, was 35.

From that date to this over 600 have been added. The present membership is 174.

The first pastor known to have been settled over this church was Rev. Wm. Woodhull, who graduated from the College of New Jersey in 1764 and belonged to the Presbytery of New York. The call bears date Sept. 1st, 1768, and contains the signatures of Daniel Cary, Levi Lewis, Jacob Drake, Jeremiah Rogers, Eliphalet Lewis, Benjamin Clark and Elisha Drake.

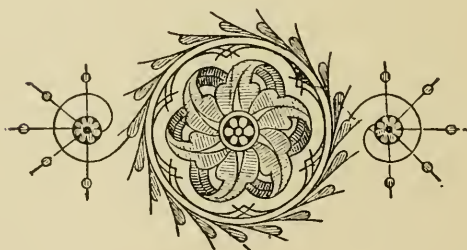

Succasunna and Chester pledged the Presbytery of New York, for the encouragement of the said Rev. Wm. Woodhull, 40 pounds, the use of the parsonage and his firewood. So easily were the ministers of a hundred years ago encouraged and freed from worldly care. Rev. Ebenezer Bradford was among the first of the supplies for the pulpit. Rev. Lemuel Fordham received a unanimous call in 1785, and served the two churches at Chester and Succasunna for 30 years, until 1815. Chester and Succasunna worked together about 50 years. In 1816 Rev. Jacob Green became pastor and served four years and nine months. Then in May, 1822, Rev. Enos A. Osborné supplied the pulpit for six months. Rev. Peter Kanouse, January, 1823, was pastor five years and six months. From July, 1828, Rev. E. Hooper, supplied a few Sabbaths. From June 8th, 1829, Rev. Enos A. Osborne was pastor during four and a half years.

From April 26th, 1834, to April, 1836, Rev. Jones, of Chester, Woodbury, George Pierson, E. R. Fairchild and Edward Allen supplied the church in the order named and for a short time each. April 17th, 1836, Rev. Joseph Moore was pastor two and a half years. Stanhope was then supplied by Rev. Moore. On January 18th, 1838, eighteen members were received at Stanhope. December 3d, 1838, Rev. David Frame gave one and a half years service. During his pastorate the President of the United States, Martin Van Buren, spent a Sabbath with his friend, Mahlon Dickerson, of Ferro Monte, and attended divine service in the old church. October 5th, 1840, Rev. D. E. Magie was called, ordained and installed November 17th, 1840, and was pastor three and three-fourth years. July 28th, 1845, Rev. John Ward stated supply about two years. December 15th, 1848, Rev. J. K. Davis supplied about one year and a half. September, 1850, Rev. Josiah Fisher called to be pastor for thirteen years and supplied the church six months longer, bringing the date May, 1864, when your present pastor entered upon the first of his thirty-one years, which in itself contains the history of a generation.

Parallel with the interest of a church in its pastors is its interest in its eldership, of which this church has had many wise, true, noble, faithful men, who are stars in its crown of rejoicing. In 1817 the elders were Ebenezer Coe and Hiram Condict. In September, 1818, Caleb Jennings, Samuel King and Abraham Cory were chosen, and October 25th were ordained. July 1823, Mr. Absalom Woodruff, Daniel Dalrymple and Calvin Thompson were chosen elders, and September 5th the last two were ordained. Mr. Absalom Woodruff declined by reason of health. June 14th, 1835, Daniel Cary, Silas Riggs and Wm. B. Lefevre were chosen and were ordained same day. Mr. Cary declined. January 29th, 1837, Stephen F. Fordham, Silas Byram and Henry Conklin were chosen elders and ordained. Mr. Fordham had been elder in Chester. May 2d, 1841, Samuel McCord, Martin S. Moore and Isaac W. Crane were elected and ordained elders. January 2d, 1846, Lemuel F. Corwin and Lewis Meeker were chosen and ordained. October 8th, 1848, Mr. Geo. W. Packard and Albert R. Riggs were chosen and Nov. 19th ordained, Rev. Williamson officiating. About March, 1864, Joshua

G. Corwin and Josiah Meeker were chosen and ordained elders, Rev. J. Fisher officiating. May 6th, 1874, Mr. Silas H. Hopkins was chosen and ordained elder. Dec. 11th, 1892, Theodore F. King, Henry F. Meeker and Jonas W. Hulse were chosen elders, and the last two ordained December 18th, 1892. Most of these elders served the church to end of life. Two, L. F. Corwin, March 6th, and S. H. Hopkins, April 29th, were so recently called to higher service. Every year some of the membership also hear the call to join the church of the first-born in heaven. Only fourteen remain who were members thirty-one years ago. The Master says, work for the night cometh when no man can work. A historical poem will give us incidents and teachings:

HISTORICAL POEM

*Commemorative of the One Hundred and Thirty-Ninth
Anniversary of the Succasunna, New Jersey
Presbyterian Church.*

BY MRS. E. A. STODDARD.

Our Father's God, whose loving care appears
On every line of this long scroll of years,
As we unroll with grateful hearts to-day
We would acknowledge Thee in all the way.
Upon the cloud as on the wall of flame
We trace, with those of old, Thy sacred name,
Across the desert, at the restful fount,
Within the valley or upon the mount,
As Thou hast gone before in all the time
We trace the years, one hundred and thirty-nine.

To-day it is our pride and our delight
To follow all along the trail of light
That passed so often by the clefted rock,
As loving pastors led the little flock.

The name of Woodhull is a worthy name
To lead the list upon this roll of fame;
The Rev. Bradford serves as a supply,
Then wisdom sought is given them from on high.
And Pastor Lemuel Fordham comes to bless

With thirty years of loving faithfulness,
A fruitful and a happy pastorate,
That saw the babes attain to man's estate.
Then follows Jacob Green, in whose four years
And good nine months a change of form appears
In the old meeting house, upon whose eaves
The swallows built their nests of twigs and leaves,
And while the congregation sang their hymns
The birds responded with their twitterings,
Inviting also to the open door,
And to the service on that hallowed floor.

Six months served Osborne, then Kanouse was given
Five years of service by the grace of Heaven.
For a few Sabbaths Hooper was supply,
Then Osborne came again and this dear tie
Held heart and hand four years and six months more,
Then came supplies who for the two years bore
The names of Jones, Woodbury, Pierson, then
Fairchild and Allen, true and noble men.

The Shepherd's crook passed on to Joseph Moore,
Who for two years six months the symbol bore,
Then churchly records give to us the name
For one year and six months of David Frame.
One Sabbath morning as the record states
The President of these United States,
Martin Van Buren, with his honored host,
Our Mahlon Dickerson, were at their post
In the old meeting house to worship God,
And listen to the preaching of the Word,
From 1st Corinthians, three, twelve, thirteen,
A rich discourse from which they all could glean.
And then another prince of royal line,
Daniel Magie, well versed in things divine.
For three years and three-fourths he gave "the Word,"
And for two years we were supplied by Ward,

And then by Davis one year six months more,
And Fisher, the beloved, half a score
And three, meanwhile in ancient poplar shade
The corner stone of the new church was laid,
May twenty-six of eighteen fifty-three,
The pride and joy of his long ministry.

His name engraven on the marble urn,
His name engraven on the heart and home,
With those who also served, the good, the blest,
The crowned victors, entered into rest.
Our Albert Riggs of blessed memory,
Whose twenty years of loving ministry
In Sabbath school is still a treasure store,
Whose Eldership of thirty years and more
Has left an imprint on all coming time,
For Christlike living makes our lives sublime.

And almost at his side a comrade lies,
Our Fordham Corwin, patient, tender, wise,
In each department of the service true,
Delighting in the work he found to do,
And full of faith in every promised word
While waiting long the message of his Lord.
And Elder Hopkins, who three weeks ago
So large a place left vacant here below.

They gather thus the cloud of witnesses
From all our ranks and years of usefulness.
The Father's rest, in God's own acre near,
Their virtues in their children reappear;

Our Hiram Hulse, the genial, tender, true,
Whose noble sons a noble life renew.
Our Coes, our Corys, our Dalrymple too,
Our Carys and our Byrams staunch and true,
Our Fordham, our LeFevre, our McCord,
The Elders in this ancient church of God.

Our Meekers, and our Condict, and our Kings,
And all the worthy host that memory brings.

In honored names and in the Christian graces
Thus borne by those who rise to take their places,
Who wear the mantles and adorn the name,
That found in serving its immortal fame.

Our sons and daughters have been scattered wide
Across the continents across the tide,
On Persian soil and on the Western fields
To gather home at last with golden sheaves.
Our sons and daughters on the other shore
Who gather at the Father's open door,
Or watch us from the height, inspire to-day
To persevere along the homeward way.
One heart, one aim, in pastor and in flock,
To feed in pastures by the clefted rock.

As thirty years and one we would review,
Our pledges to each other we renew,
As when in eighteen hundred sixty-four
The record first the name of Stoddard bore,
To hold it thus these thirty years and one
Until one hundred thirty-nine have gone,
And we recall the labors and the word
Of those who came as they were sent of God.

Ten pastors and the nine supplies in all,
And each save two, have heard the higher call,
Have crossed the stream, and on the peaceful strand
Have joined the flock of our Immanuel's land.

In August eighteen hundred seventy-two,
The church resolved to add a portion new,
And build a pulpit recess, and to crown
Our work, the Lord has added of His own.
The pillars that in earthly temples rise,
Are fashioned for the Temple in the skies ;

Enwrought perchance by sorrow's ministry
For blessed service in eternity.

'Three years ago another change was made,
In charge of chosen men who felt repaid
For time and thought and service, day and night,
By added beauty, comfort, joy and light.

Your pastor found some eighty members here,
It has been given his ministry to cheer
The dear three hundred and the fifty-eight
The joy and comfort of his pastorate.
And as the blessed seasons shall return
He yearns to welcome others in your name,
Until our households and our neighbors given
We number all when we shall meet in Heaven.
Your pastor of the thirty years and one
Thus overlooks the work that has been done.

As hand was joined to hand, the wedding chimes
Have echoed the one hundred sixty times.
To voice the sorrow of the stricken soul
The funeral bell has often had to toll.
Your pastor in these hours of sorrow given
To speak four hundred times and thirty-seven.

Your pastor has received your words of love
When his beloved have been called above.
Your pastor comforted on that sad day
Nine years ago when Linnet passed away,
Your pastor strengthened by the mission band
Who take up Linnet's work with heart and hand.

And by the ladies' missionary zeal,
Upon whose work the Lord has set His seal,
The praying circle to whose faith is given
To link this church with that which serves in Heaven.

Your pastor looking to the boys' brigade
To be in very truth the pastor's aid.

His youth renewed as strong and loving hands
Hold up his own as in your midst he stands.

The Sabbath school with circles small and large,
With faithful teachers, officers in charge,
One lady teacher in the infant class,
For more than twenty years, to see some pass
From tiny seats to take a teacher's chair,
The good received to freely give and share.

With one librarian for forty years,
With much that comforts, simulates and cheers,
As we its noble record thus recall,
Christian Endeavor intertwining all,
Recruited by the Junior nursery
For fruitful years in the next century.

A faithful band of singers in the choir,
A faithful band of hearers to inspire,
A faithful band of trusted, tried trustees,
To plan the wisest uses of the keys.

An eldership united to conserve
The interests that they are called to serve.
A faithful band of workers here for God,
And honored names to bear the name abroad.

A record to inspire the present hour
To do its best, to add new zeal and power,
To make each year more useful than the last,
Uplifting ever by its worthy past.

Your pastor of the thirty years and one
Can never feel his truest work is done
Until the seal of God, His love attest,
His benediction on each household rest,
And in this year one hundred thirty-nine
This church and people share the grace divine.

Historical and Genealogical Notes

of the Pastors, with Portraits and Autographs where They could be Obtained.

As introducing the following ministers, the original call made to Rev. William Woodhull on the first day of September, 1768, is now given.

This call is now in the records of the church, wearing a look of age but perfectly legible, and the names of the subscribing Elders and Trustees in their own handwriting :

To the Revd. Presbytery of New York :

We, the Presbyterian congregation of Roxbury and Suckasunna have had some trial of William Woodhull preaching among us, and on the 1st day of Sept., 1768, at a parish meeting regularly warned, met to call and settle him as a minister.

We therefore offer this to our Revd. Presbytery as our call to Mr. Woodhull to be settled with us in the Gospel ministry, and desire you would for us apply to the Presbytery of Suffolk that Mr. Woodhull may be dismissed from them for this purpose, and for his encouragement we promise him forty pounds yearly, the use of the parsonage and his firewood. We therefore present the subscriptions and obligations, that you may see what we propose for that purpose.

The Committee
for Suckasunna.

By comparison of signatures and handwriting of the call, Benjamin Clark was the writer.

Rev. William Woodhull, born Brookhaven, L. I., Dec. 3d, 1741, died Chester, N. J., Oct. 24, 1824. His preparation for college (also his brother, Rev. John Woodhull, of Freehold, N. J.), was in the school of Rev. Caleb Smith, at Newark Mountain (now Orange), N. J. He graduated from Princeton College 1764. He studied theology with the celebrated Samuel Buell, of Easthampton, L. I. He married, May 3, 1767, Elizabeth Hedges, who was born March 27, 1749. He was licensed by Suffolk Presbytery, N. Y., 1768; ordained and installed by Presbytery of New York, 1770, at Roxbury (now Chester), N. J. In 1783 he made request to leave the ministry and take civil office. His request was not granted till 1792.

Their children:—1. William, born June 3d, 1768; 2. Jeremiah, born June 22, 1770, died Oct. 30, 1824; 3. Elizabeth, born Feb. 22; 4. John, born April 25, 1774. 5. Hannah, born August 22, 1776; died April 28, 1805; 6. Henry Hedges, born July 11, 1779, died Feb. 14, 1813; 7. Temperance, born Jan. 22, 1782; 8. Mary Sophia, born Sept. 24, 1784; Mehetabel, born June 26, 1787; 10. Caleb-Gilbert, born Oct. 30, 1792, died Aug. 8, 1814.

By reason of bronchial trouble he continued in the ministry but a few years. In the meantime he represented Morris county as Assemblyman in the first Legislature of independent New Jersey, which met at Princeton in August, 1776, also 1777; again at Perth Amboy, 1789. He was member of the Council at Burlington, 1790. He was appointed Judge of the Common Pleas in 1808, and was prominent in public affairs till his death, Oct. 24, 1824. After leaving the ministry Rev. Woodhull opened a Latin school in a log school house near his residence. One of his pupils was Mahlon Dickerson, who became Governor of New Jersey, also Secretary of the Navy under President Andrew Jackson. By his will, bearing date 1822, the Woodhull homestead was left to his grandson, Caleb Gilbert Woodhull, who is now a resident upon it in his 80th year.

REV. WM. WOODHULL.

The period from 1756, when the deed was given to Succasunna, the churches of Roxbury (Chester) and Succasunna were supplied by the same minister till the close of Rev. Lemuel Fordham's labor, August, 1815.

II. Rev. Ebenezer Bradford supplied. The Presbytery of New York, at request of Roxbury and Succasunna, ordained him June 20, 1775. He seemed to have taken work, as Rev. Woodhull was not able to do it.

III. In 1785 Rev. Lemuel Fordham received a unanimous call and labored with these two churches about 30 years, till 1815. His acceptable labor is indicated by its length, his economy by the purchase of a farm about one mile from the Pleasant Hill Church toward Succasunna and now occupied by Mr. George Marsh. The house was a frame building, on the same site as the one now occupied by Mr. Marsh. The farm of Mr. Lewis McPeak was part of Mr. Fordham's farm.

Rev. Lemuel Fordham was born on Long Island April 28, 1749. He died December, 1831, and was buried in Pleasant Hill Cemetery, Chester, N. J. He married Sept. 3d, 1787, Ann Fairclo, daughter of Thos. and Ann Mehetabel Swazy Fairclo, who was born May 16, 1769, and died Aug. 11, 1807, and was buried in Pleasant Hill Cemetery. They had two children : 1. Betsey Fordham, who was born August, 1788, and died June 12, 1859. She was buried in graveyard of Presbyterian Church, Succasunna, N. J. She married in Chester March 18, 1819. Joshua Goldsmith Corwin, and had four children, 1. Mary Ann, born Dec. 24, 1819; 2. Lemuel Fordham, born Sept. 14, 1822, died March 6, 1895; 3. Wiliam, born Oct. 21, 1824; and 4. Harriet, born Oct. 9, 1828. They moved to Succasunna, N. J., spring of 1833, presented church letters Jan. 15, 1837.

2. Stephen Fairclo Fordham, who was born Nov., 1793, and died Oct. 4, 1843. He married Nov. 26, 1818, Eliza Brown. They had ten children. He was an elder in his father's church at Chester. He removed to Succasunna about 1836, brought his letters to the church Jan. 15th, 1837, and Jan. 27, 1837, was chosen to the eldership.

IV. Rev. Jacob Green, third pastor Succasunna Presbyterian Church and first pastor in its work separate from Chester. Rev. Jacob Green was the son of Calvin and Hannah Green and grandson of Rev. Jacob Green, of Hanover, N. J., 1755. Jacob Green was born Aug. 15, 1790. He entered College of New Brunswick in 1810 and graduated 1812. He studied theology under Dr. Ashbal Green, President of Princeton College. He preached his first sermon Oct. 15, 1815. He went on a Home Missionary tour June 1, 1816, to May 29, 1817. His trial sermon before Presbytery was preached at Hanover Nov. 4, 1817, and his ordination and installation followed at Succasunna Nov. 19th. He closed his labors April 2, 1822. During the summer of 1817 he preached here, as the treasurer of the parish records payment for his labor. At the close of labor here he became pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Bedford, N. Y., where he remained 27 years. In 1849 he became chaplain of the State Prison at Sing Sing, N. Y. He died there October, 1851. He married April 8, 1817, at Morgantown, West Va., Miss Mary Henderson, who was born Oct. 21, 1796. She survived her husband. They left no children.

V. Rev. Peter Kanouse was fourth pastor of this church. He was the son of Jacob Kanouse, who was born in Wittemberg, Germany, and Mary Pierre Kanouse a descendant of the Huguenots in the South of France, and was born Aug. 20, 1784, in Rockaway Valley, Morris Co., N. J., about one mile northerly from the present city of Boonton. He died May 29, 1865, while pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Deckertown, Sussex Co., N. J., and was buried there. His early advantages for education were very limited. When Rev. Barnabas King came to Rockaway in 1806, and permanently in 1808, he found Mr. Kanouse faithfully toiling in his blacksmith shop at Rockaway Valley. He was an earnest Christian, full of religious zeal, eloquent and attractive, eager for knowledge, and desiring an education. Rev. King encouraged all these aspirations. After the death of his wife about 1816, and his children were in the care of his wife's relatives, he went to the Bloomfield Academy, then under the care of Dr. Amzi Armstrong. His education, classical and theological, was under that great teacher. Mr. Kanouse was a man of great power in and out of the pulpit. His work in the Clove Church, Beemerville, and in his old age at Deckertown, attest this. The revivals at Wantage and other fields proved him to be a very remarkable minister and preacher. He was for a time in Newark, N. J., and Owego, N. Y. In person and manner he was noble and lovable. Rev. King led him into the ministry, and they were ever bosom friends. His residence which he built in Succasunna is still standing and is one of the choice locations in the village. He was ordained and installed at Succasunna Jan. 22, 1823. His labor began there in the summer of 1822; dismissed June, 1828. The fruit of his labor was abundant. More than fifty were added to the church in the five and one-half years' pastorate. His wife, Mary W., united with the church at Succasunna in August, 1824. He was thrice married; first to Mary Osborn, of Rockaway Valley, who died leaving four sons; second, to Mary Wolverton Bassett, October 19, 1822, and his children, who grew to adult age—Elizabeth, Théodore, Ann Maria and Harriet. By his third marriage with Amanda DeCamp he had a son (Charles A. Kanouse), who, with much of his father's spirit, entered the ministry at an early age, and after sixteen years of devoted work in the ministry, died in Princeton, Kentucky.

Rev. Dr. J. F. Tuttle, associate pastor with Rev. King, of Rockaway, furnished this character sketch of Rev. Peter Kanouse.

VI. Rev. Enos A. Osborne was the fifth pastor. Enos Ayers Osborne was born in Irvington, N. J., May 2, 1792; died in Newark Feb. 25, 1879, and was buried in Bloomfield. Married Dec. 24, 1817, Abigail, daughter of Deacon Joseph and Anna Crane Davis, of Bloomfield, who was born July 19, 1792, and died Nov. 19, 1872. Their children were: 1. Charles Smith Osborne, born Oct. 3, 1818; 2. Infant daughter, died after a few days; 3. Anna Maria Osborne, born July 4, 1821; married William McDowell, M. D., medical inspector in the Civil War 1861-1865, and son of Rev. Wm. McDowell, D. D. 4. Edward Allen Osborne, M. D., born Oct. 4, 1824. 5. Hannah Elizabeth Osborne, born Sept. 25, 1825; died Feb. 9, 1845. 6. Sarah Louisa Osborne, born June 30, 1828; died Aug. 27, 1875; 7. Henrietta Alma Osborne, born Dec. 30, 1830; died Dec. 27, 1851. 8. Joseph D. Osborne, M. D., born Sept. 16, 1833. 9. Henry Franklin Osborne, born March 20, 1837. The father of Enos Ayres Osborne was Henry Osborne, born in 1763

REV. ENOS A. OSBORNE.

in Bloomfield, N. J. He was twice married. By first wife three sons were born—Joseph, John and Thomas. By the second wife, Eliza Ayers, Enos Ayres, Annie, Eliza and a little daughter who was killed at play by the rolling of a log. The family were then living at or near Irvington, N. J., on a farm. The mother, Sarah Ayers, died while the children were yet young. Enos A., a lad of about 14, desired to study. He went to Bloomfield, engaged to work for "Aunt Becky Ward" milking her cow and doing chores to pay his board while he attended the academy. Here he prepared for college. Bloomfield was called "the nursery for Princeton." After his college course he secured "Aunt Becky Ward" for his housekeeper and conducted the academy. His fondness for teaching never left him. In his pastorate at Newfoundland, and also here, he opened a school and associated his oldest daughter, Anna Maria, in the conduct of his classes. Not only were father and daughter deeply attached to each other in this work of teaching, but undying attachments sprang up between teachers and scholars. At the golden wedding of Rev. Osborne and his wife, held Dec 24, 1867, he gives this account of himself: "I was ordained at Frankford, Sussex Co., N. J., as an evangelist July, 1819, by the Presbytery of New Jersey, Rev. Dr. Samuel Hanson Cox officiating. I continued two years and a half in that town and organized the first Presbyterian Church of Frankford. I was installed the first pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Newfoundland, Morris Co., N. J., in 1822. I served that church first and last sixteen years. The church at Berkshire Valley was also in this charge. In summer of 1822 I labored a short time at Succasunna Plain, and in June, 1829, accepted the pastorate and held it four and a half years. During that time I organized the Presbyterian Church at Stanhope and served both churches. I then returned to Newfoundland and completed sixteen years with that church. Since about 1846 I have labored in the city of Newark as City Missionary, voluntary and employed, organizing Sunday schools, building mission chapels, preaching in the jail and in the almshouse, to the boatmen on the canal and river, visiting and assisting the families of want and sorrow and superintending the City Tract Society. Our sainted parents on both sides used to pray, 'May the world be better for our having lived in it.' So we have tried to make it. We rejoice over a happy family, six children and eighteen grandchildren are with us on this joyful occasion. Our work is nearly done. In the company of the Redeemed may we all join to praise God in heaven." At the death of Rev. Osborne the Presbytery of Newark gathered, Feb. 26, 1879, to express their sense of the profound loss the church has suffered in the removal of this honored and faithful servant of God, and to express their sympathy with the bereaved children and the suffering and sorrowing poor, whom he used to comfort and help.

There now follows a brief record of the ancestors of the Osborne family of this country :

The Osborne family were seated in Hartlip, county Kent, England, in the early part of the 14th century. John Osborne, Esq., of Hartlip Place, born 1614, succeeded his father in 1645. The coat-of-arms—azure—a saltier ermine between four pheons-or ; crest, a battle axe with a serpent winding around it ; motto, Truth and Liberty. Thomas Osborne, the ancestor of New Jersey families, probably sailed with his brother Richard from London Feb. 17, 1634. They were both in Hingham, Mass., 1635. Richard went with the first Connecticut colony and settled in Windsor, 1637. He served in the Pequot war and land was granted him in Fairfield, Conn., whence he removed, 1653. Thomas

Osborne was also in the Pequot war and was with the company which landed at Quinnopiac in March, 1638. In November they entered into an agreement with Monagrein and his counsellors for the purchase of the lands. This was the foundation of the New Haven colony. On June 4, 1639, they met together in Newman's barn, and after solemn religious services drew up what they called a "fundamental agreement" for the regulation of the civil and religious affairs of the colony. They resolved "to adopt the law of God until they should have time to make a better." Sixty-three persons signed this agreement. Among them was Thomas Osborne. In 1650 Thomas Osborne removed with his family to East Hampton, L. I. June 10, 1652, he "took up four acres on the Little Plain." His sons, Thomas, John, Jeremiah, Joseph and Stephen, also took up land at East Hampton about 1665. Jeremiah and Stephen joined a company and removed to Achter Crill, or Elizabeth Towne, N. J. August 15th, 1665, Jeremiah was witness to the payment of money to the Indians for the purchase of the town. He probably died soon after, as his name no longer appears. His brother Stephen had taken his place before 1668. Stephen Osborne had two house lots "lying and being in Elizabeth Town," upon the Kill creek containing 12 acres 10 chains bounded W. by the creek, S. and E. by the highways, and E. by the unsurveyed house lot. Stephen Osborne was a member of the first jury trial of which there is a record, May, 1671. His will, bearing date July 12, 1694, names sons Jeremiah, Josiah and Joseph. Joseph Osborne, in his will, dated May 8, 1760, names Thomas, James, Enos and Jesse, and daughters Sarah, Abigail and Desire. Enos Osborne, son of Joseph, probably resided at or near Irvington, and was probably the father of Elias, who was born about 1730. His will, dated Feb. 20, 1807, proved Nov.

10, 1807, names his wife Mary, sons Elias, Eliphalet, Henry, John, Jonathan, and daughters Phebe, wife of — Meeker, Nancy, wife of — Harrison, Polly, Trephend, wife of — Wilcox, Dorcas and Eunice.

Henry Osborne, son of Elias and Mary Osborne, was born in 1763. He was a member of the first Church of Orange while it was known as the second Church of Newark. He was ruling elder from 1801 to 1811, when he left the parish. He signed the call given to Rev. Asa Hillyer, D. D., Oct. 20, 1801. He was a prosperous farmer in or near Irvington, and his large wagon was every Sabbath carrying the old women—the mothers and their babies—to the service of worship at Orange. He was father of Rev. Enos Ayres Osborne, the pastor at Succasunna and the subject of this sketch. God honors his covenant, "I will be a God to thee and to thy seed after thee."

VIII. Supplies follow Rev. Osborne :

Rev. — Jones, of Chester, for a short period.

IX. Rev. — Woodbury—Very little is known of him.

X. Rev. Geo. Pierson—He was born at Orange, Oct. 16, 1805, and died in Florida, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1880. He graduated from Princeton College July, 1823, and after this he spent some months in Virginia, a tutor in a private family. He studied for the ministry, spending one year at Auburn, N. Y., Theological Seminary. The Presbytery of Newark, N. J., licensed him to preach on 22d of April, 1828, and ordained him June 22, 1829. For a time he assisted his pastor, the venerable Asa Hillyer, D. D., of Orange. When the second Presbyterian Church of Orange was organized he became its pastor. He was released from this church in April, 1835, and on June 13, 1835, was supply of this church. On June 14, 1835, Silas Riggs, Daniel Cary and Dr. Wm. B. Lefever were chosen elders. Daniel Cary declined; the others were immediately ordained. Rev. Pierson's labor was about four months when he became pastor of the Clove Church, Wantage, N. J. In summer of 1839 he was called to pastorate of Florida, N. Y., Presbyterian Church, where he labored nearly forty years. He resigned his pastoral charge May, 1878.

He was twice married : First, in 1828, to Eliza L. Day, of Orange, N. J. ; second, in 1860, to Caroline Stott, of Port Jervis, N. Y. His children : 1. Sarah A. ; 2. George W. ; 3. Isaac S. ; 4. Caroline S. ; 5. Stephen D. ; 6. Frances E. ; 7. Mary D. ; 8. Ellen C. At this date, July, 1895, the widow and four children survive.

XI. Rev. Elias R. Fairchild, of Mendham, N. J., supplied in Oct., 1835. During this month a call was made to Rev. Edward Allen. There is no response recorded.

XII. Rev. Joseph Moore began labor with this church April 17, 1836. He was born in Caldwell, N. J., Feb. 10, 1800, and died there of consumption June 25, 1844. He married Oct. 4, 1823, Miss Matilda Steele, and removed to Western New York and began business, keeping a store. During several years he was impressed that he ought to preach the Gospel. His early advantages for education were limited, but he began the study of theology and was licensed and ordained by the New Jersey Presbytery. In April, 1836, he began the supply of this Church and preached with great zeal and fervor. During that year the session considered the matter of intemperance and decided that total abstinence ought to mark the Christian profession. He labored here about two years and removed to West Milford, N. J. Failing health weakened him, and when not able to walk he was carried to his pulpit in order to speak truly, "as a dying man to dying men." During his labor here Stanhope was supplied by this church, and Jan. 11, 13 and 14, 1838, eighteen members were received there.

XIII. Rev. David Frame began supply of this church in Dec., 1838, and closed in first part of 1840. He was born in Bloomfield Jan. 19, 1804, and died there Sept. 24, 1879. He married in Philadelphia in 1838, and had four children. Only one, Mrs. Grace Frame Miller, of Montclair, is now living. He entered Princeton College in 1827 and took the four years course. His theological course was Auburn, N. Y., New Haven and Windsor, Conn. He left preaching by reason of paralysis, but was able to teach and kept a large boarding school for boys in Bloomfield, N. J., known as "Ashland Hall."

XIV. Rev. Daniel Elston Megie was the sixth pastor and the fourteenth preacher in this church. He was born in New York City Feb. 9, 1808; died in Boonton, N. J., May 16, 1880. Graduated from New York University, 1835; from Union Theological Seminary, 1839; ordained and installed at Succasunna, N. J., Nov. 17, 1840, and continued four years. Became pastor at Boonton, Nov., 1844, to 1872; pastor emeritus, 1872 to 1880. Married April 5, 1837. Seven children were born; three daughters and two sons survive.

XV. Rev. John Ward began to supply this church in July, 1845, and July 29th, by request, acted as Moderator of the session. His labor continued about two years. Present residence, Glen Ridge, N. J., and the only preacher living who ministered to this church from 1756 to 1864.

XVI. Rev. J. Kirby Davis came to supply this church fall of 1848. Dec. 15 he was invited to moderate the session and served about one year and a half. At the time of his death he was in charge of the Knox Presbyterian Church in East Newark, N. J., township of Kearny.

XVII. Rev. Josiah Fisher, who entered upon his work at Succasunna in the summer of 1850, was born in Blue Hill, Maine, October 17, 1802. The Blue Hill Church was the 24th Congregational Church in the District of

REV. DANIEL E. MAGIE.

Maine. "The confession of faith was signed by eight men and the wives of six of them were voted into the privileges and under the watch of the church." From the foundation in 1772 to the coming of Rev. Jonathan Fisher in 1793, there were twelve different ministers who preached and labored with them. This Rev. Jonathan Fisher, the father of Josiah Fisher, was the fifth generation from Anthony Fisher, who came over from England about 1640, and settled in Dedham, Mass. The grandfather of Josiah Fisher was a Lieutenant in the Revolutionary Army. He died in Morristown, N. J., March 16, 1777.

Rev. Jonathan Fisher, of Blue Hill, the father of Josiah Fisher, was a most remarkable man. From his boyhood he was noted for his mechanical skill. When only 19 he taught school in his native town for three dollars a month, making bird cages in his leisure hours. He spent only a little more than $600 in the 7 years which he passed in Cambridge, during and after his connection with Harvard College. In 1796 he went to Blue Hill, Maine, where he served the church 41 years. During his whole mature life he read a chapter of the Bible in Hebrew for his private morning devotions, and read a chapter in French at family worship. His salary was only $280 a year. He owned his farm and on this he educated a family of 9 children, sending one son, Josiah, to college. He planned his sermons while he worked in the field, jotting down important thought on a slip of birch bark. He invented a stenographic system, compiled a Hebrew dictionary, only to find that a better one was already in print, painted sign boards with his own hand and set them up around the town that wayfarers might not lose their way, he was the builder of his own house, and the inventor of a machine to saw wood by wind power. He painted pictures, his own portrait now in Bangor Theological Seminary being one, he ground his paints from material in his own pasture, he wrote books for young people making his own wood cuts. For forty years he went without an overcoat, even in the stormiest days, yet lived respected and beloved to the age of 79 years. His life was consecrated to his idea of usefulness; frugality was a science with him and the good of the community his main object. The stamp of his piety and individuality aided greatly in making an intelligent and intellectual community. From such environment came the honored Pastor Josiah Fisher. He graduated from Bowdoin College, Maine, Sept. 3, 1822, and from the Theological Seminary at Andover, Mass., Sept. 28, 1831. He was licensed by the "Suffolk Association" of Boston, April 26, 1831. He married Oct. 2, 1832, Elizabeth Davenport Fisher, born at Wilton, Conn., May 23, 1806. She was the daughter of his uncle, Rev. Samuel Fisher, D. D., of Paterson, N. J., the first Moderator of the New School General Assembly in 1838. He was born in Sunderland, Mass., June 30, 1777, and died December 27, 1856, in the room built for him in the new parsonage at Succasunna. He was buried at Paterson, N. J. Elizabeth Davenport Fisher died at Succasunna Oct. 27, 1871, and was buried there. A granite monument from Blue Hill, in Maine, marks the resting place of Rev. Josiah Fisher and his wife. They had several children; only one, James Boorman, passed the age of infancy. He was born at Paterson, N. J., September 7, 1833; died May 20, 1889, while pastor of Presbyterian Church at West Town, Orange Co., N. Y., and was buried there. He graduated at Philadelphia, Feb., 1853, and was licensed to preach at Fredericksburg, Va., in 1861; ordained Oct., 1862. He married July 18, 1861, Evelyn Foster, of Philadelphia, Pa., who was born Dec. 2, 1834. They had children: (a) Mary Wight, born at Succasunna, N. J., April 30, 1862; married

Aug. 16, 1886, George Waterbury Wheeler, of Deposit, N. Y., who was born June 19, 1863; children, Frances Addison, born April 16, 1888; Evelyn Foster, born Feb. 7, 1890; Mary Waterbury, born March 6, 1891; (b) Elizabeth Davenport, born Dec. 3, 1863; (c) Anna Foster, born April 22, 1866; (d) Lloyd Wigand, born June 27, 1868; (e) Evelyn Foster, born Sept. 20, 1872. The places of labor of Rev. Jas. B. Fisher were Lyons Falls, N. Y., Nov., 1862—May, 1867; Pleasant Mount, Pa., May, 1867—Feb., 1869; Providence, Pa., Feb., 1869—May, 1878; Deposit, N. Y., May, 1878—March, 1881; West Town, N. Y., March, 1881—March, 1888.

Rev. Josiah Fisher was ordained to the pastoral charge of the Congregational Church in Orono, Maine, March 15, 1832. He was at Clyde, N. Y., from 1836 to 1841. He was pastor of the Congregational Church at Heath, Mass., from 1842 to 1846. He was associate pastor with Rev. Samuel Fisher at Greenbush, N. Y. from 1846 to 1849. He was pastor at Succasunna, N. J., from September, 1850, to September, 1863. He continued to reside at Succasunna until the death of his wife, Oct. 27, 1871. From that date his home was with his son, Rev. J. B. Fisher, at Providence, Pa. In November, 1871, he took charge of the Presbyterian Church at Oliphant, Pa., which he continued to supply until January, 1875. He died June 17, 1875, at the residence of his son, and was buried at Succasunna, N. J. It was during his ministry at Succasunna in 1853, that the church building of about 1760, 35x35, was taken down, and the building, 35x50, was erected on the same site; also the parsonage of the present was built under his leadership, and many days of labor by his own hand were given to it, for he was a skillful mechanic. All the subscriptions for both church and parsonage were secured by his personal solicitation.

He also supplied Berkshire Valley the greater part of his residence in this vicinity.

XVIII. Rev. E. W. Stoddard began his ministry in Succasunna May 1, 1864; received his call to the pastorate June, 1864, and was installed June 30, 1865, by the Presbytery of Rockaway. The years of ministerial life have been as follows: Nov., 1852—Nov., 1855 were passed in Hawley, Pa.; Nov., 1855—May, 1860, in Amenia, N. Y.; May, 1860—May, 1864, in Angelica, N. Y.; May, 1864, to this date, 1895, at Succasunna, N. J. In this period of nearly thirty-two years 359 members have been added to the church. In 1873 twelve feet and a pulpit recess 14x7 were added to the church building, increasing the seating capacity 40 per cent. His ancestry were English—in Nottingham—seven miles from London Bridge, from 1490 to 1765. Of this family Anthony Stoddard, of London, emigrated and settled in Boston, 1639. He was a linen merchant. Thirteen children were born there. A genealogy of Anthony Stoddard's three oldest children, Solomon, Samson and Simeon, gathered by E. W. S., and partly covering the years 1639–1873, contains twenty thousand names of these descendants.

Solomon, born Oct. 4, 1643; died Feb 11, 1729, was a noted minister in Northampton, Mass. His daughter Esther, born June 2, 1672, married Nov. 6, 1694, Rev. Timothy Edwards, of East Windsor, Conn. They had eleven children, ten daughters and one son—Jonathan Edwards—who was born Oct. 5, 1703, and died March 22, 1758. He was famous for his preaching and theological writings. He became President of Princeton College one month before his death. His burial was among the Presidents in the cemetery at Princeton, N. J.

The seventh child of Rev. Solomon Stoddard was Anthony, born Aug. 9, 1678; died Sept. 6, 1760. He graduated at Harvard College, 1697. He settled in the ministry at Woodbury, Litchfield Co., Conn., where he continued sixty years. His predecessor was there fifty years, his successor forty, giving that town three ministers in one hundred and fifty years. The pastor of this church is four generations later—a period of one hundred and forty-two years. His father was John Stoddard, born at Watertown, Conn., July 15, 1794 ; died Jan. 20, 1855. His mother was Merab Parker, born at Cheshire, Conn., Sept. 3, 1796 ; died March 29, 1857.

Elijah Woodward Stoddard was born April 23, 1820, at Coventryville, Chenango Co., N. Y. Twenty-one years were spent on the farm. At thirteen years of age he became a Christian and united with the Church. His chosen life work, a teacher, and he began at 19. Three months district school in winter was the help in education of those days. At the age of twenty-three he decided to prepare for college. The summers of 1844-5 were spent at Norwich and Oxford Academies, N. Y., the winters in teaching. On the first Monday in Sept., 1845, he started for Amherst College by the most rapid conveyance—a four horse stage coach one hundred and fifty miles and railroad eighty miles. Four years passed and the class of thirty-two members graduated in 1849, eight became ministers—one of them, Julius H. Seelye, became President of Amherst College in 1876. Another was Prof. William J. Rolfe, of Shakesperian fame ; and still another Prof. Edward Hitchcock, of Amherst College. Three years were spent in Union Theological Seminary ; licensed and ordained by Third Presbytery of New York in 1852. The leisure hours in College and in the Seminary were spent in some useful service or in teaching. July 16, 1852, married Miss Eliza West Concklin, daughter of Jonas W. and Eliza West Concklin, who was born in N. Y. City, April 26, 1829 ; died Oct. 23, 1874, in Succasunna, N. J. One son, George Henry.

born in Hawley, Wayne Co., Pa., June 7, 1853; died July 30, 1853; mother and son buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Nyack, N. Y., in family plot of Jonas W. Concklin.

Nov. 28, 1877, married Mrs. Eliza A. Stoddard, born June 15, 1838, in New York city, the daughter of Geo. W. and Eliza Platt, and widow of Prof. John F. Stoddard, the mathematician. The daughter of Prof. J. F. and Mrs. E. A. Stoddard, Eliza Platt Stoddard, born July 21, 1869, died May 19, 1886, became a member of the household at the Succasunna parsonage at eight years of age, and the eight years of her stay that were added developed a bright, intellectual, and beautiful Christian character. The Memorial Chapel standing near the Presbyterian Church, erected by Mrs. E. A. Stoddard in 1887, is her most fitting monument. The flowers placed by loving hands on the little mound in God's Acre, mark her resting place. So long as this Memorial Chapel can do service in the worship of God, it will emphasize her words, "You need Christ and Christ needs you to work for Him." "I want to do real work for Christ."

GLEANINGS

*From the Afternoon and Evening of the Anniversary,
May 19, 1895.*

At 2-30 p. m., after a little memorial service in the chapel to mark the ninth anniversary of Linnet's going away, the company went in procession to her resting place, which was bordered and covered with the floral tributes of the dear young people. At 3 o'clock the service was resumed in the church. It was led by J. W. Hulse, the youngest member of the present session.

Mr. E. J. Ross, of Dover, made the first address. We regret that one brief portion only can be given. He said: "That which most impresses me is the age of this church. I would have said it is about 80 years. When I see an aged church this comes to me, what an opportunity for good has come to that church. When I see an aged minister, I say what a blessing he must have been for so many years holding up the glorious Gospel. He is showing them the best way of living. An aged friend of mine was specially social with his children and an earnest Christian. After he was gone I said to one of the children, 'How do you get on without your father?' The answer came, 'We cannot help getting on. When any plan is before us we sit down together and ask, How would father wish us to do?' It is the wisdom of the aged granted to the younger, the wisdom of the fathers granted to the children. So it is with this grand old church. Pastors have come, congregations have come and gone, but the word of the Lord abideth forever. The Church of this day is living on the fruits of the forefathers, and this Church is to live and bring forth fruit in old age."

Dr. I. W. Condit, of Dover, was the second speaker. He said: "This is the place of my birth. I began churchgoing here at about four years, and while I lived with my father we always attended church on the Sabbath. The first Sabbath school I recollected was organized by Rev. Jacob Green, and I think he baptized me. Sabbath school was held only in Summer months. We learned verses from the Bible and recited them. My brother received a Bible as a reward, which I well remember.

In April, 1842, I came from school to spend the summer. At the organizing of the school I was requested to act as Superintendent. The line of study was the Union Question Book and the Shorter Catechism. In October we had a review of the summer's work. I gave out forty-two Bibles to scholars who had committed the whole of it to memory and twenty-two Testaments to those who committed to memory a definite portion. I could name some of those scholars, and one of them, Marcus Meeker, is now looking me in the face.

In those days this congregation covered a great deal more ground than it does now. The people of Flanders and Ironia and Mt. Freedom, Mine Hill, Mill Brook, Berkshire Valley and Stanhope worshipped here. The street here was filled with horses and wagons, and I recall one yoke of oxen that used to come.

‘ I remember the old church building well, but not as it was first used. Then they had boxes and boards for temporary seats. A sounding board was over the pulpit. Then they laid a floor and put in square upright pews with doors. Then the sounding board was removed, and one of the panels of that sounding board for a long time covered my mother’s cream pot.

“ But the times change, and the buildings change, but this thing does not change. The boy is the father of the man. Remember that, I want you to take in all that it means. If the boy is a good boy, if he is governed by right motives, the man will be right. If the boy is a Christian the man will be a Christian. Now, what benefit has the Sabbath school been to me? What has family instruction done for me? I want to say to all these young people—they taught me to respect all that is true, just, proper and right.”

Mr. John McDougall, who is about eighty-four years old, next spoke : “ When I look over this congregation I do not see one person as old as I am. I have known this church for years. I have seen much good work for Christ done here. One question is hard to answer, What of the next 139 years? Who is going to take the places of all the people and workers who are passing away. Of one thing I am satisfied—there is peace and joy and comfort in the love of Christ. For this world and the next He is the best friend we have. I notice this church is alive and active in the Sunday school. They have gathered the young people into the Sunday school and church. Let me tell you a little story. A boy about ten years old was converted and wanted to join the church. His father, thinking he was too young advised him to wait till he was older ; then if he held out he could join. Soon after his father told him to gather in the sheep and lambs, as there was going to be a storm. The weakest lamb of all was left out.

His father questioned him about it. He said, "Father, let us wait a while. If the little thing holds out I will get it. If not, then let it go." My belief is, take care of the lambs of the flock."

Mr. J. C. Buck came next. "I have been a long time in this community. I have grown with these old men, and yet I feel about twenty-five years old. I have had large opportunities in Sunday schools. I could sing and I have addressed Sunday schools in Sussex and Hunterdon and Somerset and Morris counties. I was born in Chester and my first attendance was at the Congregational Church. My mother went there. I cannot tell you all the customs of those times. If the children had shoes they carried them till near the church or school house and then put them on. The girls braided oat straw for everyday hats and rye straw for their Sunday hats. This I can say, we felt just as independent as any young man in Succasunna at this day. One thing I want to say, and I want every boy and girl not to forget it: We were taught to reverence the Sabbath and the Bible, and to go to Church and Sunday school. Our next place was Mendham, then Peapack, then Morristown, then Succasunna, but I was in church and Sunday school in all of them, and I served as well as I could. It is about forty-two years since I came here. I had one of the best classes; some are here to-day, some are out West, and one is a missionary sent out by this Church. I want to say this to the Church and Sunday school: the young are the bulwark of the Church and Sunday school. Honor the Sabbath and keep it holy. Honor your parents and attend Church and Sunday school.

Mr. Ferdinand V. Wolfe speaks: "When I was a little boy my father lived near where William Corwin now lives. Miss Mary Ann Corwin, now Mrs. Byram, led me many times to church and Sunday school.

Among the peculiarities of that place was the pulpit set up on stilts. Under the pulpit was the library. In the high seats with doors the boys and girls were in classes. We could not see out very much because of the high partitions and doors. But many of the brightest and best days of my boyhood were here. We got impressions and teachings we have never forgotten. This was my home and when I come back here I come home and I am very glad. It is a great pleasure that I was invited to come here to-day. My hope is that the children of this day and this Sunday school will find the benefit that we found here many years ago. I had a good praying mother and she loved this church and Sunday school. Here too the Lord raised up for me a dear, sweet wife. The Lord has taken them both and by and by He will take me to join them."

In the evening letters were read from the absent, and by a singular coincidence just as the message from Mrs. E. Durham was being read, in her distant home in Lebanon, Pa., she was passing away, thus linking the church below to the church above. After which Hervey Cook, Esq., one of our own young men, came back with gleanings from contemporaneous history that showed the student and the scholar, as well as the man. The discourse was of profound interest and full of instruction. Next followed the address of Mr. Frank Merchant, which alluded to his early acquaintance with the pastor and recalled some very happy reminiscences.

Mrs. McDowell, a daughter of Rev. E. A. Osborne, gave a word of greeting. Rev. Mr. Hampton, of the M. E. Church, brought congratulations and hoped that the excellent things that characterized this church might also characterize his own church.

On Monday evening a reception was given by the pastor and the session assisted by the ladies. Miss Peddie, of Newark, standing on one side of Dr. Stoddard to represent our Linnet, and Mrs. McDowell, the daughter of a former pastor, and Miss Cary, an honored teacher of the earlier days, on the other side. A picture of the first pastor, Rev. William Woodhull, hung close behind and justly received a great deal of attention and appreciation. After an hour of social intercourse and refreshments, the choir rendered some fine music, assisted by Mrs. Horton and Mrs. Dayton DeCamp. Miss Belle Corwin gave a recitation on the "Blue and the Gray," and a prayer by Dr. Spencer, of the Ledgewood Baptist Church, closed and crowned the delightful evening.

On Tuesday from 4 to 7 P. M. a reception was given to the Sunday school, Mission Band, Boys' Brigade and Junior Endeavor. Miss Louise Wiggins, who has been for more than twenty years the teacher of the infant class, received with the pastor. The guests were then entertained by music and a sight of the curious relics gathered on the platform of the church, including the foot stoves of the olden times and a bench from the Friend's meeting house, at least one hundred years old, a picture of Christ teaching in the temple that is five hundred years old, a drum that served at Bunker Hill in the Revolutionary war, pictures, vases, candle sticks, mortars, pictures worked in silk, ancient books and chairs, the study chair of Rev. Fordham and the brass kettle from which his tea was made. After a sight of these and other interesting and curious relics the company returned to the chapel and were served in the dining room. On the centre table was a large cake containing the names of all the pastors and the supplies of the one hundred and thirty-nine years with the dates 1756 and 1895 and Succasunna Presbyterian Church, the lettering in deep pink on a white icing. Old-time candle sticks gave the lights and from the old time memories came much to cheer. The Reunion and Review has been full of instruction and enjoyment, and we trust the Reunion and Review of the next one hundred and thirty-ninth year may be as profitable to those who shall take up our work in this honored church, while we look on from the heights above to see Zion going forth, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners.

RECORD OF GRAVE STONES

in Cemetery at Succasunna, N. J., in Centre Section in rear of Church.

[In that portion lying nearest the church on the right and rear, the burials have been so many and not marked, that the ground cannot now be opened without finding it has been opened before. The old church of about 1760 was used for a hospital about 1778—soldiers were buried here. The stone house built by Lewis Cary about 1776, and still in use, was used as a small pox hospital.]
